Violation Protective Order - On June 24, 2013, Deputy J. Krum was patrolling the 21000 block of Great Mills Lane in Lexington Park, Maryland, when he observed Anthony Leon Brooks, 32, of Lexington Park, Maryland, standing in the driveway to a residence he was prohibited from. Deputy Krum initiated contact with Brooks who began to enter the petitioner's residence. Once detained, Deputy Krum confirmed a final Protective Order was issued on May 20, 2013, ordering Brooks not to attempt contact, and remain away from the residence of the petitioner. Brooks was arrested and charged with Violation of a Protective Order.

Property Destruction - On June 25, 2013 Deputies responded to a residence on McIntosh Road, Leonardtown, Maryland for the report of a disorderly subject. Upon arrival of Deputies met with the victim who indicated Daniel Wayne Lybarger, 19, of Leonardtown, Maryland, was verbally threatening her and destroying items within the residence. Deputy L. Johnson made contact with Lybarger inside of the residence and observed damage to the residence and several items damaged belonging to the victim. Lybarger was arrested and charged with Destruction of Property.
