

Southern Maryland Focus: Adrian Hall Discussion

Calvert County, MD- Back in July, the Calvert County Sheriff's Office came under fire on social media after a man named Adrian Hall made several accusations against members of the Sheriff's Office during a traffic stop.

Ultimately, the events that transpired the morning of the traffic stop are unknown to anyone who wasn't there. Many sided with Mr. Hall claiming his was racially profiled. Others sided with police saying Mr. Hall was uncooperative during the traffic stop.

Employees at TheBayNet.com also have varying opinions about this incident. We recently discussed our thoughts on the subject on Southern Maryland Focus.

Here is a link to Mr. Hall's recorded phone call to his wife during the traffic stop.
