UPPER MARLBORO, Md. - Approximately $130,000 worth of damage was caused to home by a fire, Tuesday evening in Upper Marlboro, officials say.

On January 8, around 9:40 p.m., units from the PG County Fire Department (PGFD) responded to Isham Court in Upper Marlboro for the report of a structure fire. As seen in the video below, crews arrived to the scene of a single family home with heavy fire showing from the attic.

According to Mark Brady of the PGFD, nobody was injured during the incident and the cause of the fire is under investigation.
