

Annapolis man arrested for suspected crack and stolen handgun

Posted by Alan Van Wormer On 01/10/2019

ANNAPOLIS, Md. - Madison St – On January 9 at 10:30 p.m. officers were checking the area when they noticed a group of people standing in the area.

While talking with the group, one of them, Michael Gibson, 20, of Annapolis, admitted to possessing illegal drugs and handed officers approximately 5 grams of suspected crack cocaine. When officers searched him they found a loaded handgun that was reported stolen in West Virginia.

Gibson was arrested and charged with possession of a firearm in commission of a drug trafficking crime, possession of a stolen firearm, possession of illegal drugs with intent to distribute and 4 other related charges.

Copyright © 2019 thebaynet.com. All rights reserved.