GREAT MILLS, Md. - Great Mills High School Senior Adam Lindholm has been named a scholar in the nation's oldest and most prestigious math and science competition.

Regeneron and Society for Science & the Public (SSP) announced the 300 students named as scholars in the Regeneron Science Talent Search. Among those students, Lindholm was chosen to represent our region with his project "Let's Put Our Heads Together: A Practical Examination of Agonistic Behavior in Pachycephalosaurid Ornithopods"

Each scholar, selected from 1,964 entrants, receives a $2,000 award with an additional $2,000 going to his or her respective school, resulting in $1.2 million in total scholar awards from Regeneron.

The 40 finalists chosen to compete in Washington, D.C in March will be announced on January 23.
