Leonardtown, MD – The St. Mary’s County Historic Preservation Commission will host a speaking engagement featuring archaeologist Craig Lukezic, in the Commissioners Meeting Room in the Chesapeake Building, 41770 Baldridge Street in Leonardtown Wednesday, July 10, 2019.

Formerly, the archeologist for Delaware’s Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs, Lukezic is a cultural resource manager/natural scientist for the Naval Air Station Patuxent River and will speak about excavations at Fort Casimir in New Castle, Delaware.

Fort Casimir was a Dutch fort in a seventeenth-century colony in the area now known as New Castle, Delaware.

For more information, please contact Margaret Oliver at 301-475-4200, extension 71505.