Anne Arundel County, MD -- Bad driving led to the arrest of a Baltimore man on weapons charges early Friday morning in Anne Arundel County.

Around 1:30 a.m. an officer on routine patrol in the area of Ritchie Highway and Doris Avenue saw a vehicle pulling in and out of traffic and speeding.

When he pulled the suspect over, he saw the guy reaching into his pocket where the butt of a handgun was visible.

Daequane Montrell Jama Jackson, 23, was arrested without incident. Officers recovered the loaded weapon from his pocket and a second loaded handgun and spare magazine were located in his other pocket.

One of the weapons was reported stolen in a recent burglary. The below suspect was arrested and charged with Handgun in Vehicle, Stolen Regulated Firearm, Handgun on Person, and Traffic Charges.
