Detectives Investigating Attempted Murder in Nanjemoy

Posted by TBN(Staff) On 10/02/2019

Update: On October 2 at 10:30 p.m., Deon Johnson turned himself in to the La Plata Police Department. Johnson was wanted for stabbing two women during a domestic-related assault that occurred earlier in the day in Nanjemoy. Johnson was charged with two counts of attempted first-degree murder, two counts of first-degree assault, two counts of second-degree assault, attempted kidnapping, home invasion, burglary and failure to comply with a peace order. He is being held at the Charles County Detention Center with no bond. The conditions of the victims remain the same. Detective J. Feldman is investigating.

Nanjemoy, MD - On October 2 at 5:45 a.m., officers responded to the 2700 block of Port Tobacco Road in Nanjemoy for the report of a home invasion. Upon arrival, officers located two women who had been stabbed multiple times. They were subsequently transported to an area hospital by helicopter with life threatening injuries. Initial investigation revealed Deon Lennard Johnson, 24, of Port Tobacco, went to the victim’s residence in violation of a peace order which had been issued in May of 2019. After forcing entry into the home he stabbed his ex-girlfriend’s mother and attempted to abduct his ex-girlfriend. When she refused to go with him, he also stabbed her before fleeing the scene. Investigators learned that Johnson has violated this same peace order in August of 2019. He was previously charged and is awaiting trial. Johnson currently has an active arrest warrant for attempted first-degree murder in connection with this incident. We are asking for the public’s help in locating him. Anyone who sees Johnson or knows of his whereabouts is asked to call 9-1-1. Johnson is approximately 6’2” in height and weighs approximately 175 pounds. He should be considered armed and dangerous.

Anyone with information pertaining to this case should contact Detective J. Feldman at 301-609-6474. Tipsters wishing to remain anonymous may contact Charles County Crime Solvers at 1-866-411-TIPS. A cash reward of up to $1,000 is being offered for the tip that leads to the arrest and indictment of Deon Johnson.

Copyright © 2020 thebaynet.com. All rights reserved.