

Highlight: Officer Gooding raised money to help man in need

We'd like to highlight one of Prince George's County Patrol Officers for his level of service and commitment to helping others.

Officer Gooding has established a rapport with a man named John over the last few years and wanted to help keep John warm as the temperatures drop. Since losing a loved one 10 years ago, John has not had a permanent home.

With the help of his generous family and friends, Officer Gooding was able to recently raise money to buy John several things he needs to include a heater, an air mattress, a jacket and hat, a tent, and a two-night stay at a hotel.

We salute you, Officer Gooding, for your dedication and passion to serve our community!

The Prince George's County Department of Social Services urges anyone experiencing homelessness to head to a shelter, particularly during cold weather months. The hotline is 888-731-0999.
