Leonardtown, MD - January 13, 2020 – Based on an extensive Management and Occupancy Review, the Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development has recognized Cedar Lane Senior Living Community I with a “Superior” rating, its highest score. The Management and Occupancy Review is a mandatory inspection conducted to ensure that multifamily housing programs comply with the guidelines set forth by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The comprehensive process includes an advance desk review, an on-site review, customer satisfaction surveys and a follow-up summary report, all designed to identify any operational deficiencies and eliminate fraud, waste and mismanagement. In the categories of general appearance, follow-up and monitoring of project inspections, maintenance and standard operating procedures, leasing and occupancy, tenant/management relations and general management practices, Cedar Lane received the rating of “Superior.”

“Responsible management is of the utmost importance to us and I am exceedingly proud of the work our team does every day,” said Beverly Stickles, president and chief operating officer of Cedar Lane Senior Living Community. “A superior rating shows our commitment to the people who live here. Our residents can be assured we have their best interests in mind and we’re taking the best path forward to get there.”
