

LOCATED: Charles Paul Midnight, 76, of Waldorf has been found

Posted by TBN\(Staff\) On 06/25/2020

JUNE 27 UPDATE! GREAT NEWS! Mr. Midnight was located at about 4 a.m. this morning in Marlow Heights after he drove up to a police officer with the Prince George's County Police Department. He asked the officer for directions. The officer realized Mr. Midnight appeared lost and was able to verify his identity and get him home safely. Thank you EVERYONE for sharing his information and we are so thankful he is safe and with family. Thank you PGPD.

WALDORF, Md. - Charles County Sheriff's detectives are seeking the public's help in locating Charles Paul Midnight, 76, of Waldorf who was reported missing on June 25 at 12 p.m. Mr. Midnight was last seen leaving his residence in the 3000 block of Ryon Court. He left in a burgundy Ford Focus, four-door, with Maryland registration 2DS0602.

The car has damage to the lower side on the driver's door and damage to the mirror on the passenger side. Midnight is 5'9", 170 lbs., and was wearing a purple short-sleeve polo style shirt, black jeans, and black slip-on shoes. He walks with a limp on his right side. A family member indicated he has dementia and may be headed to North Carolina, where he once lived. Midnight does not have a cell phone with him.

Detectives are pursuing leads and ask that anyone with information regarding Midnight's whereabouts call Detective E. Weaver at 301-609-6571 or the non-emergency line at (301) 932-2222. The investigation is continuing.

Copyright © 2020 thebaynet.com. All rights reserved.