LEONARDTOWN, Md. – St. Mary's County Public Schools' Judy Center and Food and Nutrition Services is pleased to announce its FREE summer meals program in partnership with a grant from the United States Department of Agriculture. Meals are for children 18 years and younger free of charge. Details about the grab and go lunch pick-up and weekly activity bag pick-up are included below.

Monday through Thursday, during the weeks of July 6th – August 13th, SMCPS' Food and Nutrition Services will operate a Grab and Go Lunch pick up at Lexington Park Elementary School and Greenview Knolls Elementary School from 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. Parents or guardians may visit either site to pick up a nutritious meal for their child.

Additionally, on Wednesdays, July 8th – August 5th, the SMCPS' Judy Center will be offering weekly learn at home activity bags at Lexington Park Elementary School and Greenview Knolls Elementary School from 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

For more information regarding weekly activity bags please contact the Judy Center at 301-863- 4068. For additional information regarding grab and go lunch, please contact Food and Nutrition Services at foodservice@smcps.org.
