At 10:27 p.m. on July 16, Charles County Sheriff's officers responded to a house in the 400 block of Patuxent Court in La Plata for the report of a robbery.

Investigation revealed five suspects approached a 39-year-old man in front of the residence and demanded money. During the robbery two of the suspects were armed with handguns and assaulted the victim. The robbers punched and kicked the victim, held a gun to his head and threatened to shoot him. The assailants stole the victim's cell phone and wallet and fled on foot toward the back of Patuxent Court.

All suspects are described as black males between 17 and 22 years of age.

The first suspect is 6 feet 1 inch tall, weighs 160 pounds and has a medium build and shoulder length dread lock style hair. He was wearing a black T-shirt and a black skull cap.

The second suspect was described as dark-complexioned and 5 feet 11 inches tall and is 200 pounds with short hair. He was wearing jean shorts and no shirt and was carrying a dark-colored semi-automatic handgun.

The third suspect is medium-complexioned has a thin build, is 5 feet 6 inches tall, weighs 160 pounds and has short hair. He was wearing a white sleeveless T-shirt and light-colored jean shorts and was carrying a silver revolver.

There is no further description of the fourth and fifth suspects.

This incident does not appear to be random.

The victim was transported by ambulance to Civista Medical Center with non-life-threatening injuries.
