LEXINGTON PARK, Md. - A Lexington Park liquor store was damaged in a fire on Wednesday evening.

Around 6:30 pm, four local fire departments responded to the blaze at Sign of the Whale Liquor on Three Notch Road.

When firefighters arrived on the scene, they saw smoke coming from the two-story building. Crews discovered a fire on the first floor that was beginning to spread to the second floor and into the walls.

Crews were able to knock out the walls and extinguish the fire. There were no injuries reported.
