PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. - An Air Force veteran from Calvert County scored the top prize on the $100,000 Lucky scratch-off, picking the new $30 game that has luck written all over it!

Like his dad before him, the Lusby resident enjoys playing Maryland Lottery games as a distraction about once a week. The scratch-off fan found more than a distraction, however, the day he stopped at a Dash In store in Prince Frederick on his way to play softball with friends. He purchased the scratch-off and played the instant ticket while sitting in the convenience store parking lot. Our winner matched the 16 under Winning Numbers with a 16 under Your Numbers and then revealed the $100,000 top prize.

The loyal player said the $100,000 windfall is his biggest Maryland Lottery score ever, although he has won $500 in the past. With the winnings, he plans to pay off a camper he and his family recently acquired. In addition, the 30-year-old and his wife may take their two sons on a vacation to Disney's Magic Kingdom.
