On Sunday, August 2, New Life Church along with the Garage Church and the Southern Maryland Blue Crabs will host "Faith Day" at Regency Furniture Stadium.

Events for the day will kick off at 10:30 a.m. with a combined service between the two churches at Regency Furniture Stadium. Admission for the church service is free for anyone who wishes to attend.

After the mass, New Life will provide live worship music for 30 minutes prior to the scheduled game time of 2:05 p.m. when the Blue Crabs will take on the Lancaster Barnstormers. Anyone who attends the service and would like to stay for the game will need to purchase a ticket. After the game is over, New Life will again provide live worship music for fans to enjoy as they leave the ball park.

"Our goal is to bring the Church, which is for everyone, to every place that we find people. God calls us to let the world know of His love for them, and we plan to do that anywhere we can, including Regency Furniture Stadium. We really appreciate the Blue Crabs organization for allowing us this opportunity to both worship and say thanks to all those who serve God with us in the area," said Pastor Mike Hilson of New Life.

Fundraising tickets to benefit New Life Church for the baseball game can be purchased in the New Life Church Lobby at 9690 Shepherd's Creek Place in La Plata, MD or at www.somdbluecrabs.com by clicking on the fundraising tab and entering the code "newlife." Tickets are $13 apiece. For more information or questions, contact New Life Church at (301) 609-8423 or visit their website at <http://www.newlifelaplata.org>.

"We are very thankful for all of our local partners and sponsors that are so loyal, and New Life certainly falls into that category, said Blue Crabs Assistant General Manager Omar Roque. "New Life's event here at the ballpark is definitely one we've been looking forward to all summer," Roque continued.
