On September 13, deputies responded to a residence on Gregory Drive in Leonardtown, for a report of an assault in progress.

Investigation revealed Derkia Denes Hopkins, 21 of Leonardtown, was engaged in a verbal dispute which escalated into a physical assault when Hopkins tore the victim's shirt off leaving scratches on the victim's back. Hopkins then grabbed a knife but the victim was able to take the knife from Hopkins.

Hopkins was charged with second-degree assault.
