On January 15 at 4:47 p.m., officers initiated a traffic stop near Livingston Road and Pomfret Road in Bryans Road after observing a violation.

Upon approaching the car, officers noted the driver, Lovelle Antoine Proctor, 39, appeared to be intoxicated. He failed a field sobriety test and was arrested. During the arrest, the driver's father, Lloyd Chester Hart, 67, drove by in another vehicle. He was stopped after the officer noticed his brake lights were out. It was determined he too was intoxicated. Hart was arrested after failing a sobriety test.

Both men were charged with driving while intoxicated.
