Charles County Incident Briefings

Posted by TBN On 05/07/2013

The following is a sample of recent events investigated by the Charles County Sheriff's Office. For information about other events which are not included in this report, visit www.CrimeReports.com and search by county, city, zip code or street address.

BURGLARY: Between Feb. 25 – Feb. 26, unknown suspect(s) broke out the glass to the front door of a business on Irongate Drive in Waldorf and stole a laptop. PFC. R. Herbert is investigating.

STOLEN TRAILER: Sometime between Feb. 23 – Feb 25, unknown suspect(s) stole a trailer from a parking lot on Irongate Drive in Waldorf. The trailer is an ANDE model, black, flat bed with a silver tool box. It may have MD registration plates 697704G. POI A. Fenlon is investigating.

BURGLARY: On Feb. 25 at 8:20 a.m., unknown suspect(s) pried open a door to a business in the 100 block of Paul Mellon Court in Waldorf and stole cash. POI A. Fenlon is investigating.

ATTEMPT BURGLARY: On Feb. 23 at 8:45 p.m., unknown suspects tried to pry open a door to a house in the 2100 block of Fawn Court in Waldorf. A resident was inside when he heard noises coming from his yard. As he went to investigate, he saw a gray Dodge Caravan leave the area. Further, the resident noticed pry marks on the door frame and a screen had been removed from a back window. POI R. Walls is investigating.

THEFT OF PIPES: On Feb. 23 at 7:45 a.m. a patrol officer was conducting a parking lot check at the Shine Inn in Newburg when she noticed an open door. Investigation revealed unknown suspect(s) entered the room and stole piping. Other rooms were checked and officers found damage to several doors. Cpl. C. Baker is investigating.

BURGLARY: On Feb. 21 between 4 p.m. – 5:30 p.m., unknown suspect(s) broke into a house in the 12500 block of Council Oak Drive in Waldorf and stole a laptop. There was a trail of mud footprints leading from the rear deck, through the residence, up the steps into the master bedroom, and back down the steps out to the back patio door. There were no signs of forced entry. POI R. Walls is investigating.

Copyright © 2020 thebaynet.com. All rights reserved.