It was an opportunity for citizens to learn more about Lexington Park businesses, many of which are small businesses. The Discover Lexington Park event was held Thursday (4-7 p.m.) at Freedom Park. Citizens were able to try free samples from several restaurants, get their hair cut, talk to businesses about their products, enjoy music and be scared by Dracula from the Newtowne Players production. The event was sponsored by PNC Bank and the Lexington Park Business and Community Association.

The vendors included:

- The Mixing Bowl Restaurant
- Linda's Cafe
- ■N&N Oriental Market
- Plaza Azteca Lexington Park
