Harry Michael Richardson, 79, of Louisa, VA, formerly of Croom, MD, died April 22, 2011 at Evergreene Meadows Nursing Home, Standardsville, VA. Born July 10, 1931 in Brandywine, MD, he was the son of William Franklin Richardson and Martha Boswell Richardson. He retired after 27 years of service with the Prince George's County Government. During his last years of service, he was the Traffic Superintendent for the Department of Public Works, Office of Transportation. A devoted husband, having been married to his wife of 54 years, father and grandfather, he enjoyed spending time with his family. Harry enjoyed fishing and hunting, but entertaining family and friends by singing and playing his guitar brought him great joy. Harry was predeceased by his parents and siblings, Franklin, Marshall, Henry and Joe Richardson, Lillian Windsor, Margaret Kingsley Richardson, Lucille Boswell and Ruth Bruce. He is survived by his wife, Marjorie Estelle Hutchinson Richardson; daughters, Sharon A. Hall (Bobby) and Janet L Palmateer (Ed) and son, Floyd M. Richardson (Krista); six grandchildren, Justin and Ryan Hall, Robert (Robbie) Richardson, Ashley, Kristin and Kendall Catterton, two step granddaughters, Kristin Palmateer, and Jessica Palmateer Wilson (Josh), and one step great granddaughter, Amelia Wilson. He is also survived by one brother, James Richardson (Vera), along with numerous nieces and nephews. The family will receive friends for Harry's Life Celebration on Wednesday, April 27, 2011 from 2-4 and 6-8p.m. at the Brinsfield-Echols Funeral Home, P.A., 30195 Three Notch Rd., Charlotte Hall, MD. A funeral service will be held Thursday, April 28, 2011 at 9:30 a.m. at Brinsfield-Echols. Interment will follow at 11:00 a.m. at Maryland Veterans Cemetery, Cheltenham, MD. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Evergreene Meadows Alzheimer Home, 422 William Mills Dr., Stanardsville, VA 22973. Pallbearers will be; Robert Boswell, Wayne Van Tassel, William Clint Buckler, Justin Hall, Ryan Hall, and Ronald Windsor.
