

Pet of the Week -- Lance

Posted by Dick Myers On 01/14/2015

Lover Boy Here!

My name is Lance. I was born in March of 2012. I will let you pick me up and pet me. I enjoy being petted. I love to play and am very young at heart.

I would love to be a one and only cat but if you have other pets, you could foster me and see how I do with your other pets with no cost to you. If you fall in love with me which I think you will, then you can adopt me and allow me to be a part of your family permanently. I am fully vetted and cost $125.

You can fill out an application at www.feralcatrescuemd.org and email to moonandhunt@Hotmail.com

I am frequently at Petco in California on Saturdays and Sundays which means I am available to meet you although I really don't like going there and sitting in a cage. I don't think you really see my personality from meeting me there. If you fostered to adopt me, you would be able to see what a lover I am.

Yours truly,
Lance

PS Feral Cat Rescue is always looking for volunteers to trap, drive cats to the vet, and do adoption and fund raising events.

Copyright © 2020 thebaynet.com. All rights reserved.