

Religious education for families with many faith Traditions

Posted by TBN_News On 09/09/2015

Parents Did you and your partner grow up with different religious backgrounds or not attend church at all, but want your children to be familiar with a variety of religions?

Join the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Southern Maryland from 1030 - 1130 Sunday mornings at the Hollywood Recreation Center located at 24400 Mervell Dean Road, Hollywood, MD 20636.

Children stay with their parents through "Time for All Ages", and then go to their classes. Unitarian Universalist Religious Education for children encourages a positive self-image, spiritual growth, social awareness, understanding of world religions, and age-appropriate engagement in social action.

As children participate in lessons about multicultural and diverse families, being fair and kind, the awesomeness of nature, spiritual practices, and Unitarian Universalist history and traditions, they are encouraged to wonder and to ask questions. For more info go to www.uufsm.org.
