

Annual Potomac jazz and seafood festival coming up next month

Posted by TBNKB On 06/29/2018

Coltons Point, MD - Get ready for this popular jazz music festival taking place on Saturday, July 14th from 12p.m. -9 p.m. at the St. Clement's Island Museum in Coltons Point. This event, in addition to being a unique musical experience, is the largest fund raising event for Friends of the St. Clement's Island and Piney Point Museums. The funds raised from this event will support historical interpretation, education programs, and various needs of all properties and sites managed by the museum. Support local historical maintenance, preservation, and education through this fun jazz music and food-filled celebration.

Tickets are $65 and must be purchased in advance of the event, either online or by phone. Service or processing fees may apply. This event is very popular, so grab your ticket soon before they're all gone! Your ticket includes entrance to the festival with parking included. All food and beverage are available for additional costs.

Some of the delicious seafood selections will include: crab cakes, oysters, shrimp, and rockfish. There will also be non-seafood options available, such as: ribs, barbecue, salads, sides, and desserts. Beverages, both alcoholic and non-alcoholic will be available as well. The food vendors attending this event are: Chief's, Mrs. Moo's Corner, New Orleans by MyRA, and Mike's Bar-B-Que & Catering.

The first jazz artist will perform at 3PM, however, all ticket-holders are able to arrive early and enjoy a complimentary boat ride tour of St. Clement's Island - starting at noon. Seating for the performances is lawn only, so bring your own blankets or chairs.

For more information, click here

To RSVP on Facebook, click here

To RSVP on TheBayNet, click here

For direct questions, e-mail margaret.leahey@stmarysmd.com

Copyright © 2021 thebaynet.com. All rights reserved.