LEXINGTON PARK, Md. - Here's something you don't see everyday. Air Force One was spotted being towed up the Potomac River Sunday morning, Sept. 30.

Well, it's not the Air Force One, but it is a replica of the famed presidential Boeing 747 that doubles as a travelling museum.

The exhibit is called "Air Force One Experience" and it's expected to reach the National Harbor by Monday where it will open to the public Oct. 19 for a limited time engagement.
