On Oct. 29 at 10:35 p.m., Charles County Sheriff's officers responded to a residence in the 3100 block of Gatwick Court in Waldorf for the juvenile fight report.

Upon officers' arrival, they observed a 15-year-old Waldorf girl holding a knife, in an argument with a 15-year-old Waldorf boy. Cpl. S. Brown attempted to make contact with the girl and she attempted to cut him with the knife.

She was charged with first degree assault and is being held at Waxters Juvenile Facility in Baltimore.
