Charlotte Hall, MD - On April 11, Detective Austin Schultz made contact with James Michael Russell, 34 with no fixed address, and charged him with burglary and theft. In February deputies responded to the 30400 block of Potomac Way in Charlotte Hall, for the reported burglary to some mini storage units. Numerous items were taken from the storage units, and through the course of the investigation, Russell was developed as a suspect.

After Russell's arrest, numerous items that had been reported stolen were recovered.

According to a court docket summary, Russell was charged with two counts of second-degree burglary, theft between $1,500 to under $25,000; and theft $100 to under $1,500. The latter charge is a misdemeanor while the other three charges are felonies.

After his arrest, Russell was released on $3,000 bond. A District Court hearing on the charges is tentatively set for May 9.
