

St. Mary's County Government announces change to July operations

Posted by MJ On 06/28/2019

Leonardtown, MD – All St. Mary's County Government administrative offices will be closed Thursday, July 4, for the Independence Day holiday. In addition, both Governor Larry Hogan and the Commissioners of St. Mary's County announced an additional holiday for Friday, July 5, for state and county employees; state and county administrative offices will be closed July 5.

Landfills and Convenience Centers

The St. Andrews Landfill, six (6) Convenience Centers will be closed July 4. The Landfill and the Convenience Centers will be open for normal business hours July 3 and 5.

Libraries

All three St. Mary's County library locations (Charlotte Hall, Leonardtown and Lexington Park) will be closed July 4. Libraries will operate under normal hours July 3 and 5.

Recreation and Parks

All St. Mary's County Department of Recreation and Park facilities, including museums, parks and the Wicomico Shores Golf Course will operate under regular schedules July 5.

Senior Services

All St. Mary's County Senior Activity Centers (Garvey, Loffler and Northern) will be closed July 4 and 5. There will be no Home Delivered Meals July 4 and 5.

Transit Systems

The St. Mary's Transit System (STS) and Statewide Special Transportation Assistance Program (SSTAP) will be closed (or not operate) July 4. The St. Mary's Transit System (STS) public routes and the ADA routes will operate July 5, the Statewide Special Transportation Assistance Program (SSTAP) The SSTAP will not operate July 5.

Copyright © 2020 thebaynet.com. All rights reserved.