Annapolis, MD -- Annapolis Police vehicles are getting a radical redesign. The first of these new-look vehicles will hit the streets on Friday, August 9.

For the next few months, there will be three different looks for department vehicles:

- Dark blue Ford Crown Victoria Police Interceptor sedans with gold striping, a graphic of the Annapolis Police Department seal, "POLICE" and "EMERGENCY 911" on the sides.
- Dark blue Ford Police Interceptor Sedan (Taurus) and Utility (Explorer) vehicles which have gold and white striping, a graphic of the Annapolis Police Department badge, "POLICE ANNAPOLIS" and "EMERGENCY 911" on the sides.
- New black Ford Police Interceptor Utility vehicles. They have grey and white striping, a graphic of the Annapolis Police Department badge, "POLICE ANNAPOLIS" and "DIAL 911" on the sides.

The Crown Victoria vehicles are expected to be out of common use by December of this year.
